The main diagram illustrates the assembly of the ship's mast and rigging. A grey axle is inserted through a grey 1-hole Technic brick at the top of the mast. The mast is supported by a brown grid structure. The rigging consists of several grey 2-hole Technic bricks with holes, connected to the mast and the ship's deck. Red arrows indicate the placement of the parts shown in the insets. The ship's deck is made of grey Technic bricks and features a green door, a barrel, and other details.
