LEGO® Les succulentes

Certaines ont des épines mais ne manquent pas de charme. D'autres sont tout en rondeur et en élégance. Les spécialistes de l'architecture d'intérieur affirment qu'elles ont le don de sublimer tous les recoins de la maison. Et ce sont les plantes d'intérieur parfaites pour ceux qui n'ont pas la main verte. Nous vous présentons les succulentes LEGO®.

Les succulentes font de fabuleux centres de table, peuvent habiller les rebords de fenêtre et rendre n'importe quel espace parfait pour un feed d'Instagram.

On dit que la présence de succulentes dans une pièce favorise la concentration, et vous en ferez sans doute l'expérience en construisant ce set. L'avantage est qu'il n'est pas nécessaire de les arroser !

*Construisez les pots un à un ou assemblez-les tous : quelle que
soit l'option choisie,
vous allez adorer l'expérience.*

À chacun sa succulente

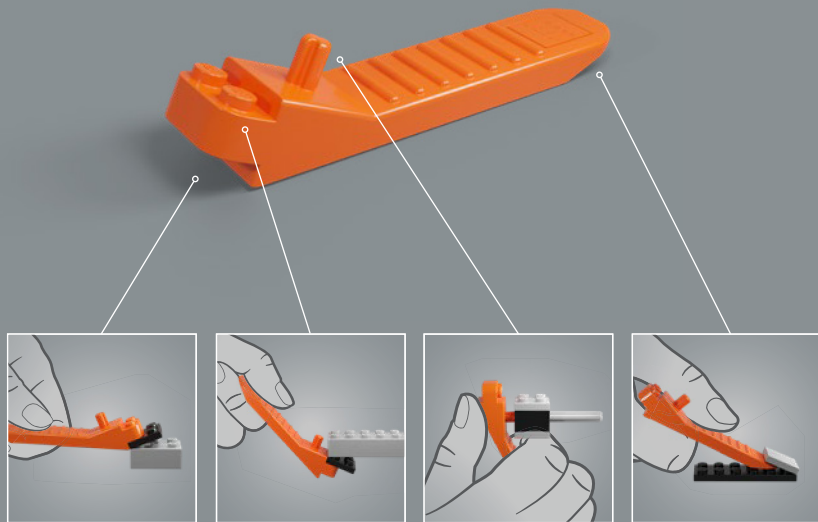

Contrairement à d'autres plantes de la collection botanique LEGO®, les succulentes LEGO, livrées en petits pots individuels, peuvent être assemblées pour créer un bel ensemble de succulentes ou exposées séparément. Les instructions de montage disponibles dans des livrets individuels permettent de partager l'expérience de construction LEGO avec des amis ou des proches.

Les mots de l'équipe de design

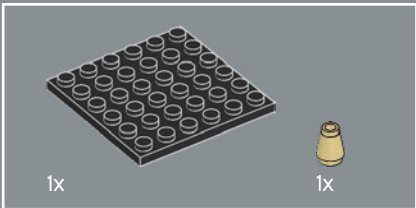

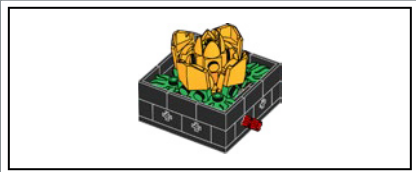

Andy vient du sud de la Californie, un lieu connu pour la beauté de ses jardins de succulentes. « Tous mes amis connaissent très bien ces petits bijoux du désert, mais ce n'est pas mon cas. Ce set LEGO® était donc l'occasion rêvée de rendre hommage à ma patrie. Pour réaliser ce set, aucune succulente n'a été maltraitée ! », déclare Andy, qui signe ainsi son premier set.

Joubarbe des toits

La Joubarbe des toits, appelée « Hens and Chicks » en anglais, soit « poules et poussins », doit son nom à sa capacité à faire rapidement beaucoup de bébés.
